This elegant rake bed, available in twin, double, queen and king sizes, has wooden side rails and two footboard choices: the regular footboard or a low-profile footboard option (shown at right). The twin and double beds include an eleven-piece wood slat roll for mattress support; when ordered with regular footboard, the twin and double beds will accommodate the under-bed storage options (please see sidebar for under-bed storage options). The queen and king beds include a metal mattress support system with additional support legs and do not accommodate the under-bed storage options.
